CHAMBERS OF
SAMUEL C. COLEMAN
JUSTICE

June 16, 1951.

Dear Prof. Calamandrei,

Please don't think that we have deserted Florence. ~~As~~ As I tried to explain to your telephone operator yesterday (I hope she understood me) we left because of the heat. We took your advice and we are staying at the Hotel Astor in Viareggio. I shall return to Florence Tuesday for the lecture. I understood you to say that you would call for me at the Beacci Pensione, at a convenient time, and I shall wait for you there. In any case I shall telephone your office when I arrive in Florence. My wife will probably not accompany me. She asks to be remembered to Mrs. Calamandrei as well as to you.

Sincerely yours,
Fannie C. Gleason
